

Claims for well child exams that were processed on January 31 and February 1 were denied in error with a message that states "The procedure/revenue code is inconsistent with the patient's age". This was an error on our part. These claims will be reprocessed during the week of February 13. No action is needed to appeal or resubmit these claims.

We apologize for the error.